

Volunteer Community Fundraiser

We are one of the UK's most dedicated and ambitious anti-bullying charities. Our award winning work is delivered across the UK and each year, through our work with schools, colleges, youth and community settings, we provide education, training and support to thousands of young people.

Purpose of the Role

Our fundraising volunteering opportunity is an exciting new role for 2018. BulliesOut has always relied on the dedication and skills of volunteers to help deliver our work and as the charity grows, we would like to set up a new Community Fundraising Team. This is a network of dedicated volunteers who will organise and/or participate in a variety fundraising roles to help us generate much-needed income to continue to help those affected by bullying. We are increasing our community fundraising goals and this is an exciting time to help us grow.

Role Description

Activities include:

- Planning, organising and promoting your own fundraising events
- Helping at BulliesOut fundraising events
- Manning a stall at an awareness event
- Bucket Collections
- Being responsible for the distribution and management of Collection Pots in your local area
- Attending cheque presentations
- Giving engaging, enthusiastic presentations to community organisations
- To source organisations and contacts to provide auction and raffle prizes
- To inspire others to fundraise for BulliesOut
- Complying with legal requirements, such as Health and Safety legislation, for fundraising events
- Liaising with your BulliesOut Coordinator to keep up-to-date with our activities and future direction
- Not bring the Charity's name into disrepute

Skills Required

- Great people skills, approachable and friendly
- Strong organisational and administrative skills
- Honesty and reliability
- Ability to handle money
- Ability to work alone or as part of a team
- Good communication skills
- Self motivated
- Passion and enthusiasm
- An interest in anti-bullying and the work of BulliesOut

What's in it for me?

- Develop fundraising skills
- Develop event management skills
- Training opportunities
- Meet new people
- Be active and engaged
- Add value to your community
- Make a difference to those affected by bullying
- Learn new skills and improve your CV
- Reasonable out of pocket expenses will be reimbursed according to guidelines

Other

This is a flexible role with hours and days to suit each individual.

You will receive an induction when you start and the training needed to complete the role including fundraising and health and safety training. You will be provided with a volunteer handbook and regular 1-2-1 supervision. We hold regular meetings and additional training sessions.

This is a volunteer opportunity within BulliesOut. BulliesOut volunteers are people who, unpaid and of their own free will, contribute their time, energy and skills to support the purposes of the charity. BulliesOut volunteers may perform a variety of tasks and duties, under direction and guidance, using their skills, knowledge and time to help BulliesOut best achieve its objectives.

We respect and honour our volunteers by building trust and understanding. Such a partnership is not intended to be a legally binding contract or to have mutuality of obligation, but instead express a voluntary two-way commitment where everyone gains satisfaction from being part of our organisation.

Successful applicants will be required to:

Undergo an enhanced DBS check (provided by BulliesOut)

Provide two professional referees

Sign a confidentiality agreement

Interested?

Email volunteers@bulliesout.com for an application form and/or informal chat