

Why we need your help

In the UK today, over half of our young people and one in three adults report being bullied. Through mentoring, innovative, interactive workshops and training programmes, we use our experience, energy and enthusiasm to focus on awareness, prevention, building empathy and positive peer relationships, all of which are crucial in creating a nurturing environment in which young people/staff can thrive.

What will I be doing?

Within the role, you could do one or all of the below activities

- Planning and running a calendar of fundraising events for 2021
- Helping to organise events
- Speaking on behalf of BulliesOut to potential supporters

This is an ideal opportunity for someone wishing to gain valuable community and events experience in a dynamic national charity. The role offers the opportunity to gain a working knowledge of planning and fundraising across a wide range of events.

What skills/experience do I need?

- A personal and friendly manner
- The ability to work alone or as part of a team
- Great organisational and administrative skills
- Confidence to interact with the public
- Flexibility to be called upon when needed
- An honest and trustworthy nature
- Be bubbly and enthusiastic

How much of my time would you like?

Whilst this is a flexible role, ideally, we would like you to commit to 2-4 hours per week to ensure the events are planned, achieved and maximised.

What can I gain from volunteering?

- The satisfaction of knowing that you are making a valuable contribution
- Utilising your existing skills as well as developing and learning new ones and improve your CV
- The opportunity to meet new people
- Be active and engaged
- Support the work of BulliesOut
- Reimbursement for any expenses incurred (with prior agreement)
- Training
