

Help us Make a Difference

Why we need your help In the UK today, over half of our young people and one in three adults report being bullied. Through mentoring, innovative, interactive workshops and training programmes, we use our experience, energy, and enthusiasm to focus on awareness, prevention, building empathy and positive peer relationships, all of which are crucial in creating a nurturing environment in which young people/staff can thrive.

What will I be doing? Within the role, you could do one or all the below activities:

- Help create engaging content for our social media channels
- Promote our 'Speak Out' Campaign to local businesses
- Promote our 'Membership' programme to the local community
- Support campaign, marketing, event, and fundraising activities
- Speak on behalf of BulliesOut to potential supporters
- Attend conferences and events

For each activity, tasks will vary from speaking to local businesses about our Speak Out campaign, encouraging individuals to sign up to our membership programme, looking after a stall, handing out information flyers, presenting local businesses with their Speak Out certificates. You will be a 'face' of the Charity locally and will be able to tell people about our work and how they can support us.

What skills/experience do I need?

- A personal and friendly manner
- Enthusiasm, creative ideas, and lots of energy
- Self-motivated with confidence to interact with the public
- Flexibility
- An honest and trustworthy nature
- Good communication skills

How much of my time would you like?

This is a flexible role, but, if possible, we would like you to commit to 2 hours per week.

What can I gain from volunteering?

- Reimburse out of pocket expenses in accordance with our Expenses Policy, and help to organise travel to activities
- Support from BulliesOut members of staff, event organisers and other Challenge Event Volunteers
- Provide comprehensive information and briefing in advance of any event, and the opportunity for debriefing afterwards
- Volunteer social events to provide the opportunity to connect with other volunteers
- The full support of a dedicated Volunteer Manager
- The satisfaction of knowing that you are making a valuable contribution
- Utilising your existing skills as well as developing and learning new ones and improve your CV
- The opportunity to meet new people
- Be active and engaged
- Support the work of BulliesOut
- Training opportunities
